“ Mom...I miss you so much! I know that you are free from all the pain and fear of your battle the last year. You were strong and fought until the end. God has now healed you and you are at peace. I just wish you were here to wipe my tears one last time. Thank you for guiding me with love and wisdom. I will continue to show such greatness to Mallory and Jack because I learned from you. Watch over us and know that we loved you beyond what words can say!Rest In Peace Mom.
