“ Dear Cathy, I remember you and your Mom when we were hanging around in the late 80's. You moved into a little flat in Rochester. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. I know you must miss her terribly. And, Dennis, I met you just before I moved to Mexico, before you and Barb were married. I remember how happy she was with you. I'm sorry for your loss. Tina Koppal

“ I enjoyed getting to know Barb through Wendy and John. She was always filled with life and liked to show up coiffed and groomed- never saw her in a pair of sweats. She was an inspiration in how graceful she appeared in her battle with cancer.

“ Our favorite memory of Barb was when we spent some time with her in San Diego some years ago. She was so nice and so much fun and had a true joie de vivre. And she always looked gorgeous. She was such a special person and we know that she will be missed. Our prayers are with her and her family.
