“ Will always remember playing board games with you and your brothers at the house in Birmingham. I don't think you ever knew how beautiful you were, inside and out. Smart as a whip and so funny. How you put up with your four crazy brothers is beyond me. Christmas at the Schiffers was quite the experience with your mom's Christmas tree sugar cookies and the number of gifts that would be destined as returns. The Schiffer clan knew what they wanted :) Great fun at Plum Hollow dinners where I was coached by your mom to not talk to the waiters. So funny. Will remember you fondly always. --Kim

Barb and I worked together at Textron and Collin's and Aikman. She took me under her wing to teach me about pensions. We had a lot of fun traveling to different Textron plants. We stayed in touch until she moved to Houston, I assume to be near Her brother Grahame. I have looked online for her many times and I'm sad to discover I found her obituary instead. Barb was an important piece in my own life story.

“ I feel very privileged to have known and worked with such a beautiful, caring, intelligent and funny person. Heaven's gain is our loss.

“ I too have great memories working with Barb at Ex-Cell-O/Textron/C&A she was a very hard worker and always thought of the employees first. I also had the pleasure of becoming her Port Huron friend and I will remember her friendship forever.

“ I have great memories working with Barb @ Textron and playing golf together with her, my husband, and Marti. She will be missed by many, many people. But I feel lucky that Barb was one of my friends.

“ I first met Barb when Textron acquired Ex-Cell-O but we kept in touch when she left and worked for Wyatt and still worked on the Textron account. She was a wonderful person and had an infectious laugh. I still have her notes from Ex-Cell-O that we have referred to over the years. She was far too young but is definitely an angel looking over all of us left. We will miss you Barb! Claudia

“ I worked with Barb at Wyatt and over the last 30 years she became one of my very closest and dearest friends. We were dinner buddies, golf buddies, go to a play buddies. She was always there for me as a friend. She always had good things to say about everyone. We were supposed to go to dinner and a play Dec. 10. Barb: I can't believe what has happened...I will always treasure our friendship and I miss you terribly already. May God hold you always in the palm of his hand. Love, your friend always, Clarisse

“ Dearest Cousin Barb... so sorry we didn't keep in touch better-- through all these years. I so enjoyed the summer visits @ 30665. You were to young to leave us so soon. I know your brothers will miss you dearly. Love Ruth Lynn
