“ Barry, I see you smiling and laughing as you entered heavens gates! Meeting our Lord Jesus must be awesomeness! How could you not be happy! But... We are here, very sad you are not with us. My family and I have many fond memories of up north, golfing, and family gatherings that we always knew you were present. You always shook up life wherever you went. You and Dave were always up to something or getting into trouble with Barb and I. I can here you guys snickering like two little boys together. You were special in your Barry way. Look forward to seeing you again! Tell Dave I said Hi! Love you. Ps. I'm still trying to lose that darn 5 lbs!
Your sis in law Carol 🙄🙄

“ Hey Barry, I know you are grinning big at the beauty of heaven! And I know you're sending so much love and comfort to Barb and Neil, Cary and Barry, Jr. , friends and family. I LOVED being a fellow "out-law" as a select group of Kosloskey in-laws, (a term only you could coin lovingly); i will always see you smiling, laughing, cutting us all up with your clever witicisms! Rest in peace, Barry. YOU FOUGHT A BRAVE FIGHT.

“ Sincere condolences to the Bryan family. Barry lived his life with passion. He loved deeply, felt strongly, and played hard. I treasure my memories of Barry and his family at the ranch, on the golf course, and up north at Torch Lake. See you on the other side, Bare...
