“Beatrice, ÆBeaÆ , lovingly called ô Aunt Beaö by many family members is dearly loved and held in greatest respect by many children in her extended family,áher positive influenceáaffecting several generations of families. Beatrice enjoyed a very rich, full and long life, living to 105 this year, independently in her own home. She taught school for over 30 years, settling in Pleasant Ridge with her husband Dr. Howard Burnside . She was member of the P.E.O. sisterhood for over 50 years, Detroit Yaught Club, Pleasant Ridge Garden Club and Bloomfield Hills WomenÆs Village Clubwhere she became an accomplished bridge player. She had an artistÆs eye, and started painting when she was in her 60s, many of her paintings adorn family and friends homes. She designed her beautiful gardens and home with flair and color. She was a gracious hostess, entertaining friends and family with generosity and style. Her students would visit her years after they graduated to tell her what an impact she made on their lives as a teacher. Many of her beloved friends have passed as well, and she was a good friend to all of them. She leaves a legacy that will impact her friends and family for many generations. We love you and will miss you greatly dear Aunt Bea!

“ Bea Burnside was a gracious lady. She had been as long as possible an active member of her PEO chapter. She outlived all her contemporaries but continued to enjoy life. I had a couple of phone conversations with her last fall and early winter before returning to Duke University to teach in January '07. She loved her home and garden. A wonderful life. God bless her. She was the oldest member of Metropolitan Methodist Church, 8000 Woodward. -Rev. Bill Quick

“ I will miss seeing the garage door opening and Mrs. Burnside standing there to welcome Edie and me to do her yard. She loved her gardens and told us how it made her so happy to look out and see her flowers. A kind and sweet lady that will be dearly missed.

“ Mrs. Burnside was a grand lady. Gracious and kind, I will always remember how independent and strong she was. She loved her home and gardens and always made sure that like her, they would be ready for a visit...looking their best. Fondly, Edie and Barry Saunders
