“ I have so many wonderful memories of Bea and her husband, Don. They started up the Nifty Fifties, cookie walk, Sew & Sews, and the bazaar at Sterling Hts United Methodist Church. We had so many fun times together. Even when Bea had trouble getting out, she was always at our bazaar and cookie walk. We still make many of the cookies that she made when she was in charge. They invited my family up North several times to camp on their property with them and later up to their cottage. We miss her dearly. Ginny Canary
