“ Our condolences to the whole family. Sal and I feel your loss because we have lost our parents recently. How blessed we are to have had them to share so much of our lives. Now it is their turn to feel free from any pain and enjoy watching us grow from above. Prayers and thoughts are with you all. Love, Donna and Sal

“ I'll never forget Grandma walking up the hills in San Marino Italy wearing her shorts and tennis shoes, wandering around with lively curiosity and bright eyes...I was in my 20s and I remember thinking: "She's great, that's how I want to get old!". Thank you Grandma for letting me see how beautiful life can be at any age... Love you and your daughter and granddaughter, too!,
