“ Dear family of Ben Barylski, I am very sorry for your loss. I went to school with Mike...class of 71...knew Ben and Lola. Ben as I remember him was a funny, friendly young man. May God grant you peace and may you see Ben again. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Sandra

“ My Ben, Oh how I miss you! What a wonderful son you have been to me. I'm going to bed now--my prayers are for you and my thoughts are with you. I love you! I will always cherish the special times we shared. Such as the summer concerts where you saved a spot for us. You would wave the umbrella so I could find you. We would enjoy the music, watch Cassie dance with her friend, laugh and just have a good time. I wish a wave of the umbrella would bring us all back together again. Now your job is to save a spot for all of us. Be sure to wave the umbrella so we can find you. Until I see you again, remeber how much I love you! Mother

“ Ben, I can't believe or even accept the fact that your gone!!!! Part of me is sooo mad at you for giving up so soon and the other part of me admires you for your strength and the courage you had right up to the end!!! You were so strong through this and I know how scared and depressed your were! I only wish I could have taken your pain and cancer away! If I could have traded places with you I would of in a heart beat! The only peace I have with this whole ordeal is that you are out of pain!!!! I hope you know I kept my promise to you, I told you I would be there with you to the end and I was! My heart was breaking as I stood by you and held your hand, I didn't want to let go!!!! I told you then and I will tell you again, I love you and I am soooo proud of you, I couldn't of asked for a better brother!!! I will miss our laughs, our fights, our tomorrows, but will never forget our yesterdays!!! I love you and you will always be in my heart and in my thoughts every day for the rest of my life! Until we meet again, all my love!!!! Your sister, friend, and admirer. Lola

“ Hi Bro, I am going to miss your dry sense of humor, you always made me laugh. I am glad we got to share so many special times such as cutting down our Christmas trees, concerts, home projects, holidays, etc. This are memories that I will always have. oh no, who am I going to call to fix my computer??? Thank you for being a wonderful uncle to my children and a awesome Godfather to my son Matt. There are no words to express the void you are leaving behind. I will miss you Ben so much, but I know you are at peace and that comforts me. Until I see you again, know how much I love you brother and that you will always live in my heart. Love, Your "big" Sis, Candy

“ To my Big Bro, Thank you for being my big brother, I'll miss all the good times we had and all the jokes we shared on our birthdays every year. You will always be in my heart and I'm glad we got to spend some time together before you went to heaven. Please rest in peace and know that I will always remember the promise I made to you. I love you Ben. Lil Sis
