“ I do remember going to Harry & Bernie's house for dinner and then to I think it was called The Old Towne or The Village Bar in Utica for Old Vienna on tap before going bowling. Good times especially the dinners that were fantastic and full of laughs and good times...

“Bernie was a Godsend when our Mother Mary Kuligowski could no longer stay at home by herself safely. She would bring her crocheting with her and show Mary what she was doing. She would play cards and let Mary win. She was always kind and gracious to Mary. She will be sadly missed at St Lawrence. Always smiling and happy. We will miss you Bernie. 💕

Bernie always greeted Gene and myself with a smile and hello. Made us feel “welcome” from the time we joined the St Lawrence community. Our deepest condolences to Harry and family. RIP sweet lady. We will miss you. Gene & Janice Meredith.
