I'm going to miss everything about you Gramps. I'm so Thankful I had you for this long. You are the MAN I looked up to. “ My Grandpa Is the GREATEST MAN I have ever known. I remember when he first retired and went back home to Ohio and would take us for rides and he never looked at the road lol he would be pointing and saying so n so lived down there and this used to be where someone else lived and the roads were curvy and I would be a little scared but I trusted him with my life ..

He was always there to talk me up when I was feeling down. He had more Faith then anyone I know. When I lost my mother ( his daughter) 22 yrs ago I was only 20 years old. I had a really hard time, being the first person I lost was my mother. I would call him all the time sometimes more then once a day and he would preach to me and comfort me . He always told me " we can't be mad for God taking back what was his to begin with).. How strong he was. He and my Grandmother had a Love like I have Never seen in my life. Growing up my Father wasn't around that much and my Gramps was an amazing Grandfather. I have never met one person that had anything bad/negative to say about him or Grandma. He was a Family Man and a very hard worker and took care of his Family. There will never be anyone to fill those shoes. I will keep all my memories in my heart forever. Rest in Peace Grandpa tell My Mom and Grams and all the other Family that I miss n Love them very much too. I'm Happy your with Grams now, you have wanted that for so long.

*Till we meet again Grandpa , I Love you

“ I have so many memories of him. This man was the smartest man I ever knew! I remember the visits to Ohio for Easter & the scary stories he would tell us kids, rolling down the hill at their house & grandpa saying "you can roll, but I'm not scratching your itches when your done", then he would start laughing & sure enough, I would be itching like crazy from rolling in the grass all day... Lol. My best memory would be the 30 yrs of him asking " you got your Brazere on?" Every time he saw me! It was his little joke with me since I was like 5, he saw the strap of my tank top under my shirt & says "you wearing a Brazere already?" And from that day on he always made sure I had it on! I am going to miss so many things about you grandpa, I'm going to miss the big strong hugs you would give & your awesome smile. I love you always, RIP, tell grandma I miss & love her too!
