“ I started as Bernice's therapist and was happy to become a friend of hers. Bernice was a pleasure to see daily when I worked at Evergreen. After I left, I continued to visit Bernice and was able to gain such great memories that I will always cherish. Ill miss that beautiful smile and hearing that laugh of hers.

Great Aunt Bernice was an Aunt to many and we sure are going to miss her laugh. We were blessed to have her for so long and feel a bit of comfort that she is up there laughing with her family Uncle Ray, Cindy & Brad, & James L. & Hazel. She would tell me when I would visit her, how much she missed our Grandpa but especially our Grandma. Until we meet again Aunt B.
