“ I met Becky in 1973. She was a most beautiful and kind Lady to me. I knew her Late Husband George, and her son George as well. Although we lost contact with each other for many, many years, I never ever forgot them. Their home at 52356 Thornebrooke Drive, in Utica, was always warm. It was a happy place to be. One day, I received a letter from Karen, telling me that my friend George had gone to be with The Lord. I never saw Karen, but I knew Sue, and Francis, and I loved them all. Now after so many years, on this Rememberence Day 2016, I decided to find out about this family, only to find out that Miss Bernice has also gone to be with The Lord, and her Husband and her son George. It is a sad day for me. I am happy that she had a long life, and that she helped so many people, including myself. Oh how I cherish the happy times we had together. I even called her Mom sometimes. Today, I pray for you, I bless your soul , and I say "Rest in Peace with the Lord"
Love always,

Stephen
