

Bertha LaPier

June 6, 1938 - March 27, 2022

Bertha LaPier (nee Stone), a resident of Madison Heights, passed away on March 27, 2022 at the age of 83. A daughter of Arthur and Kamellia Stone, she was born on June 6, 1938 in Big Sandy, Montana. Bertha worked as an outreach worker for the Rocky Development Council from 1967 to 1971.

Everyone who met Bertha loved her. Her personality was genuine, and Bertha's love for life left a glow about her. Bertha put all others before herself- especially her children. She made sure that each child found happiness and success in all of their endeavors. Strong in her faith, Bertha loved the Lord. She was caring, honest, fiercely independent, and blessed with a good sense of humor. An avid gardener, Bertha's talents came from her upbringing on the family farm in Big Sandy, Montana. She also enjoyed sewing, collecting, and reading novels about the triumphs of others- particularly stories of Amish women and settings in Montana. As she raised her children, Bertha loved to play Rummy and board games like Sorry. She resonated with "twangy" country songs and a couple of her favorite songs were "Through the Years" by Kenny Rogers, "I Believe" by Brooks and Dunn, and "Family Bible" by Merle Haggard. Bertha will be missed dearly by her family and friends.

Loving mother of Marshall, Donald, Georgia Elhana, and Loraine (Dave) Schirmer, Norma and stepson Frank. Cherished grandmother of Frank (Anja), Jordan (Melissa), Jeff, Dustin (Alyssa), and Sarah (Jerah) Ward. Treasured great-grandmother of Alex, Keagan, Xoe, Elias, Maeci, and Logen. Dear sister of Doris, Arthur, and Alice. Loving Auntie to many nieces and nephews and cousin of Gracie (Al) Buchanan. Close friend of Joyce Kincaid. Preceded in death by former spouse, Frank LaPier Sr.

Donations in Bertha's memory may be made to the wishes of the family.
