

Berton Cuddington

July 7, 1963 - December 15, 2022

Berton "Bert" Cuddington Age 59 Born July 7, 1963 in Berkley, Michigan to the late Berton and Ruth.

Passed away unexpectedly December 15, 2022 from causes his family hope and pray to understand in time.

His battle with chronic pain and a TBI the last 12 years showed his courage in facing life's challenges with a smile and strength. Despite the pain and struggles, Berton was a strong and determined man until the end.

As many know, Berton was a selfless man always going out of his way for everyone else. He always put family and loved ones first and will always be remembered for his jovial personality, genuine heart and being his family's rock of stability.

Bert met the love of his life, Mary, on Easter in 1983. It was love at first sight and he immediately knew that she was his pearl. During their life together Berton accomplished his dreams of running a successful roofing company for over 20 years as well as fulfilling Mary's dream to own a home daycare. He lived a fulfilling life that was spent traveling the seas on cruises with Mary, camping with friends and family and playing with his grandkids. He was a beloved husband, father, brother, uncle, cousin, friend, but of all his titles he loved "Papa" the most.

Loving husband of Mary; dear father of Breanna (Brian) Hawkins, Samantha (Jonathan) and Brian (Autumm) Cuddington; papa of Maryedith, Charles, Ruth Ann, Owen, Paisley, Bentley, Aiden, Matthew, and Vada; dear brother of Peggy (Tom) White, Gerald (the late Judy) Cuddington, Herald (the late Loralee) Cuddington, Norma Snyder, Robert Cuddington, Chuck (Sue) Cuddington and the late Nancy Cuddington.
