

Beth Calder

January 2, 1937 - June 21, 2006

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

CH

“ I didn't know Beth personally but have seen a glimpse of her through those whose lives she touched, in my case my friend Jennifer Munro. Even without knowing Beth I have respect for her and feel the sense of loss in those who knew her best. If only those left behind could share the peace that hopefully Beth has now found.

---

Carol Hayford - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

MD

“ Beth was my second mom. Ever since I met her 16 years ago, Beth has been a part of my life as much as any of my family members. I admired and loved Beth for her respect of others, her knowledge of history and books, her love of food, and her willingness to admit she did not understand science fiction. Thank you Beth for the small things like teaching me to drive stick shift, letting me borrow your car, for watching movies and eating popcorn in the back room, for playing video games, and for teaching me to add cream cheese to mashed potatoes. Most of all, thank you Beth for helping my mom during her greatest time of need and for opening your door and heart to her children and her grandchildren. We love you Bethà

---

Melissa Delinois - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

JM

“ We miss you so much, Beth! I think even you, as dignified as you were, would have loved your funeral. Mom is convinced you've been watching us from somewhere, so maybe you saw it. If you did, you would have seen so many people who loved you and learned from you. I hope Mom's right--I hope where you are, there are no wheelchairs and you're chasing Caleb and King and Buffy. I hope you're holding Nicholas a lot give him a big fat raspberry on his tummy from his Aunt Jeni!. I hope there's lots of cake and meatloaf no one will ever top yours--don't tell Mom. Anyway, we're all so sad for losing you but all better for knowing you. Love, Jeni

---

Jeni Munro - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CO

“ Beth, you will always be missed. You meant so much to so many people. You are loved.

---

Corene - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM