“ Beth was not only my sister, but she was my Christmas running buddy. I'll miss her laugh and funny comments. She was such a Beautiful sister inside and out and her smile would light up a room. She was an intelligent, caring, loving and kind sister. I don't know what I'll do without her. I'll miss her dearly and carry her in my heart forever. I Love you, Beth. Until we are together again. ❤️❤️

It has been over two years, since you have been gone and it still hurts as deeply as the night you left. I will always remember you and love you until the end of Time.

Beth,
My sweet and beautiful sister. It's been hard since you left us. I'm so empty inside. The feeling that I carry is like no other. I miss you all the time and some days are harder than others, but one thing I know is that we will be together again. ❤️❤️❤️

Dearest Beth,

Another Christmas is here. I think about past Christmases.. how, as kids, we sang at church for Christmas eve service. Remember the one night we got tipsy off of the rum balls we made before service? Ann and I still laugh about the drive to Birch Run for christmas shopping, and how my voice cracked when I said "Labrador" You kept imitating me, which made it even more hilarious! Our stomachs hurt from the laughter! Oh, how I miss those days. I miss you...

Did you see Cesar yet? His little heart had enough, so we had to say goodbye..He was the light in the house....Jerome misses him. Cesar lived a good life: you spoiled and loved him so...and it was an honor for me to watch over him after you left. I hope that you found each other in a field of wild flowers, and that his little legs carried him to you as fast as they could. I hope...I love you always.
