“ I want to start by sending my Condolences to the Nasso family. I'm also grateful I had the chance to meet Bette a few years ago. I loved listening to stories she would tell. From when she was a little girl, to traveling the world when she was married, and raising 3 wonderful children, she also adored her grandchildren! Through the years of knowing Bette I can say I've learned many things. She was a Classy Lady with Pride and Character! RIP Bette You are Loved and will be Missed by many! ❤️🙏

There's nothing better in life than to love and be loved. Bette felt that in the strongest way with her husband Henry. Although she missed him terribly she enjoyed telling stories of their life together, which involved several moves, travel, and juggling work with a young family. Dick and I came to feel we knew them both during those happy times. She was so proud of her accomplished children and cherished her grandchildren, and graced us all with the pleasure of their friendship. Rest well, Bette. With love, Barb and Dick
