

Betty Ruth Clapp

December 21, 1922 - October 27, 2017

Clapp, Betty R. Age 94. October 27, 2017.

Beloved wife of the late Freeman Flynn and the late Chester Clapp. Loving mother of Pamela (James) Green and Jennifer (the late Scott F. Thomas) Clapp. Proud grandmother of Erin (Adrian) Robles, Michael (Corissa) Green and Jillian Clapp. Great grandmother of Jack Robles. Dear step-parent to four children and their families.

Betty attended Wayne State University and received her RN with Harper Hospital. She later earned her teaching certificate and ultimately received a Master's Degree from Eastern Michigan University. During her career in education, she worked for Redford Union Schools in developmental kindergarten through second grade. She was the reading specialist for the school district. Her past times included home decorating, traveling and she was known as a wonderful seamstress. Betty was very social and loved people.

The family will receive friends on Sunday, November 5, from 1 p.m. until time of memorial service, 2 p.m. at Wm. Sullivan and Son Funeral Home, 705 W. 11 Mile Road (4 blocks E of Woodward), Royal Oak. Memorials appreciated to the Salvation Army. Share your memories at www.sullivanfuneraldirectors.com.

“ We first met Betty when we all moved to Northville in 1972. She set the tone for our little community, was a great mentor to the many new mothers around her, and a joy to the kids she loved so dearly. Always smiling, always supportive, always teaching, and always loved. Thank you, Betty, for your caring and words of wisdom. Your influence will live on through those you influenced.
