“ Over 60 years ago 2 young beautiful people met and fell in love. And IÆm sure looking back, they had no idea what they were capable of doing. And now, look at all of us. I have to believe that my grandma and grandpa are watching us all, grandpa pointing out, "Betty -look at us, just look at usö. A big proud smile on his face. The kind he would greet you with while floating on his back in the pool, hands crossed behind his head. ôhappy as a clamö. The family they raised and the life long friends that became family. All of us and how we are joined because of two very special people. Betty and Carl Taylor.
