“ Bill, Lori, Steven, Joe, and Tom. I have so many beautiful memories of your mom. My favorite is her simply sitting in her chair, with Mitzi on her lap, eating a big bowl of popcorn in your home on Exeter Court. I loved everything about her; her smile, her laugh, her courage. She was always so proud of each and every one of her children. It was so long ago, but to this day I am very grateful that I knew her. She is the mom who I kept in the back of my mind as I was raising my children. I look back with nothing but admiration for your sweet mother. My condolences to your father and to your entire family. May she rest in peace. - Annie
