“ It seems like 100 years ago, but I used to play parks and rec. volley ball with Jim. When we got together for pizza and beer afterward, your Mom would come up and meet us. We loved all the Barbershop events that your Dad told us about. My friend Jeanne and I thought we were fabulous singers and Jim taught us to harmonize a couple of his favorite songs. Most memorable was a Barbershop moonlight cruise on a perfect summer night. One year at Christmas, the volley ball players turned the table on your Mom and Dad when we did a house to house singing party.. Your Mom and Dad were always the life of any gathering we had. She was a lovely and loving person and I am so sorry for your loss. I am lifting your family up in prayer...and feeling blessed to have such happy memories of your parents.

“ My favorite memories are my most recent. They involve my own children and their relationship with "little granny" as Maddy calls her. When we were in Michigan visiting, Maddy would pack a purse full of her favorite toys and take them to see grandma Kinner. When we got there she would take them out and show grandma how all of her toys and how they worked. Grandma didn't have much to say, but she would look at Bradley and Maddy lovingly and tell me how beautiful they were.
