“ Jan and Nancy, Looking through the Free Press and I saw the passing of your mother. Sorry for you and your families. Seeing your names brought back so many warm memories of your summers in Port Huron. I hope you have a memory and a smile in your time of sorrow. Bob Eppley

“ Jan, just happened to see your Mom's obt. in today's paper. I've lost both my parents , the transition seems to mark a certain place in ones life. Hope life has been good to you and that you are in a good place in life. Take Care, and respond if you are so inclined. Sincerely, Steve Baerwalde

“ Grandma, your kindness, sensitivity and appreciation for others was truly remarkable. You raised 5 loving and beautiful children; one of which being my strong, intelligent and beautiful mother, Jan. I will forever miss your generosity and gentle spirit. Your spirit will live on through memories and through the love of your family. My heart aches of your passing but I know you are in a beautiful place now. Please rest with ease, we love you so much.

“ My second mother, Beverly, was as kind and loving to me and my children, as if she were my own mother. I'm grateful for her bringing Jan and her brothers and sisters into this world. I will always love her.
