“ I knew I had words I needed to write about Sue's mom. I couldn't quiet my mind until I laid in bed for a bit this morning. I wrote this for my wife, for her brothers and sister, for their children and their children's children. I read this at her service before she was laid to her final rest this afternoon with Dad. ♡

Little Mommy

*Your little Mommy had a strong heart that is made from gold.
She will always be there with a gentle hand to hold.
Her love is ever present and surrounded you'll all be,
With her goodness and kindness at the root of your family tree.
As her family continues to blossom within the spirit of her love,
Mommy and Daddy are filled with pride as they gaze from above.
Nary a day will go by that we don't think of you...
Nary a woman more loving, more loyal, more true.*

*I love you, Mommy
Wendy

“ I have a sweet memory of Nancy and I taking our children on the Bob-Lo Boat, many years ago. Of course, Nancy's mom, Bev, came along. She loved a good time and loved being with her family! Our children were very little. I don't think Nancy or Bev sat down for more than 3 minutes .... they danced and danced as the music played and the boat chugged along. Bev Soffa ... I hope you dance!
