“ Bill was my mother's brother. My mom, Linda, watched my cousin Chad when he was a little boy and I was young also. We used to have a lot of fun together. My mom and dad have lots of stories about Bill and how they took him in to live with them when they were married and he was in his late teens/early twenties. I didn't spend a lot of time with Bill as I got older, but we would talk on the phone and text. My husband and I went to his house for his daughter, Madeline's, birthday party one year. I think I was pregnant then. He always liked to hear about my son and what we were all doing. He was always at a funeral or event for my family. He was loving, caring, funny, smart and hard working. The last I talked to him he was excited about a boat he bought and wanted my family to come have a ride on with him. I can remember his smile and his good nature. Uncle Bill will always be in my heart. I miss him already. My prayers go out to his family, especially Madeline and Lynn. If you need anything at all, I'm here for you. Love, Jessie

“ He was very quick with the personal insults, all done with loving humor behind it. Had quite the vocabulary, will be missed a lot.
