“ Jean and family: We didn't know Bob very well, but the grandchildren's birthday's we spent together were always good times. I know you have left a 4 sons who loved you very much. Your daughter's-in-law will always remember the impact you had on their lives. Your grandchildren will miss you in ways you will never get to know. You suffered and were so ready to go to Heaven. I am sure the good Lord was there to welcome you with open arms. You are at peace, and your family begin the rest of their lives without you, but they will never forget you. Our best to the entire Marshall family.

“ When I heard that you have left this world, I cried for the loss of a wonderful man. I thought about the impact you had on your family, friends and loved ones. I thought of the kind of man you were. Mr. Marshall you were a good man who had life figured out. Your family was your life. You were so proud of your sons and the men they grew up to be. You were a loving husband and a hard working man. Through you and Jean I learned what a Dad and Mom should be like, devoted, accepting, forgiving, and loving. Thank you for having an impact on my life. Thank you for being the kind of man that more men should strive to be like. A man who was devoted to his family, who loved his life, and always made the most of what God handed him. Even in the end. The world lost a wonderful man, but heaven gained a blessing. Rest in Peace Mr. Marshall. You are truly loved and you will truly be missed. All my love, Lisa

“ Jean and family, I am so sorry about your loss. Dad thought of Bobby as a brother instead of a nephew, I know they are together with Bill now, probably telling stories. Love to you all. Love, Belinda, Josh, Joshua, Katie, and Aidan

“ Having any loved one taken away brings feelings beyond understanding. Things are never the same, things are never better they just become a change to your life style. The pain is still there and the only thing I found to bring comfort is reflect on the happy memories because it is the only thing that brings a smile to your face. Bobby was loved by all. He will be missed by us here but welcomed by those who have been waiting for him. He is a constant reminder to how much Jimmie loved his uncle Bob, tears of saddnes are a part of us for now but things will become a bit easier when we realize how bad he suffered. He has now been taken by the other man that is waiting to care for him now. Thoughts and Prayers are with the entire family. Bobby and Jimmie will now look at life in a whole different way, they will protect their families and care for their loved ones. Believe in "God" becasuse he will be the only one that will get you through this.X-O,X-O
