“ My Dad taught me how to properly bait a hook, one does not gob on a worm but merely stretches it out on a crawler harness. My Dad taught me how to properly throw a baseball, you must use 2 fingers to whip the ball and not the whole hand. My Dad taught me so many things in life except he didn't teach me how to deal with him not being here. We had a special bond that meant everything to me. Dad taught all of us girls to change a tire and change our own oil, he did not want his girls stranded if we got a flat. He taught me a lot about cars and how to do it yourself. I have so many memories of Dad so many words of wisdom he has spoken to me, hard to believe that I am not gonna hear anymore from him. We all know that I was Dad's favorite even though he would not admit it for hurting anyone's feelings. He always told me I was the one he did not have to worry about because I could take care of myself, I told him it was because he taught me how to stand on my own. There was another side to Dad, he had a temper that we all labeled " A Robinson Fit". If Dad was mad everyone knew it, but we always laughed about it later. I would give anything to have just one more call to Dad. My Dad taught me one final life lesson, don't wait to tell the ones you love that you love them, there just might not be a tomorrow.

Love you Dad Always
Karen (Pee-Wee)

“ It's hard to think of one memory to share about a man who was like a 2nd dad to me. I have known him and the Robinson's for well over 30 years and so many memories come to mind. From yelling at us kids when we didn't come home on time to telling Karen and myself what he really thought of our boyfriends and if it was at the house on a Sunday morning sure shootin' there was church. But he one thing always stuck out and that was everytime he saw me he would laugh, smile and say "It's Barbie Jean the village queen!" God i love that man and he will surely be missed but always in my heart. Everyone's heart because he touch so many us. God bless dad, God bless ma and the whole Robinson clan.

Barbara (Davis) Beauchamp - October 05, 2017 at 11:04 PM

I remember you and Dad fighting once over money. We were going on a drive at night because you decided to go to Lake George area and he asked you if you had enough money in case something happened and you said yes and Dad said take this in case, you said no we are good and that went back and forth then you said FINE, we walked out and you said damn Dad always wins. Dad was so stubborn :)

“ My Dear Uncle Gene...your the one that got me interested in playing the Guitar!! When you used to come over and play for us!!! When I saved up my baby sitting money and bought my guitar. I took a class at the Berkley school, then I took class at the instructor house. I loved playing so when you played Smoke on the Water! I would practice downstairs in my room...it always kept me close to you!!

When I was small I always thought you looked like Elvis. And always thought my Aunt was so lucky! She had the best ,he would talk to us not as little kids but as a person and I always loved when you guys would come over and visit!! Mom didn't send us at of the room! So you had a big influence on my life! I went into music singing to learn how to read music. I couldn't play by ear like you could.

When I moved back home when Mom got sick I would play in my room downstairs she never told me that she loved listing to me play. I loved playing so much !! When I played Smoke on the Water it always reminded me of you! It was always brought me memories of you and your family!

I loved when we went to Bald Mountain to go sledding! Mom would make chicken soup to warm us up! But you will always be in my Heart! I loved your playing your laughter and you! My God enjoy your playing as much as I did! Love always your Niece Diane!! Hugs and kisses to a wonderful person! I will miss you!! Keep playing so I will hear you in the music here!! XOXO!!

“ So many fond memories with Uncle Gene, my all time favorite was the pranks we (he mostly) on Deb and Larry on their wedding night using his PA system. It still makes me laugh thinking about it. He will truly be missed. May you rest in the heavenly peace with the angels and family above.

“ He was like a father to me. I can remember the hours spent hanging out at the house when I was younger like it was yesterday. I'll miss talking smack about football with him and hearing him call me Jean the Bean. While it won't feel the same, I know he is no longer in pain and watching over us which gives me some comfort along with having the privilege of being with him on his final journey. So many cherished memories that I have with the whole family growing up. Sunday memories I will always cherish like the many gatherings out to Stoney Creek Metro Park and never wanting the day to end. Winter time was always a blast sledding down the hills and having cookouts on the grill. Going up north to Miss Nichols on the canal and all of us fishing and just having great times 😊 so many great memories and Gene was my Dad's best friend and my Dad was always so happy when they had plans to do something....many many memories I will always have in my heart....I always loved the way he could play a guitar 🎸🎵. Rest now Gene and tell Dad and everyone we miss them...will miss your great humor too....God has you now and we will all meet again Gene....see you soon 😊
