Sharp, Brandon Stephen

Brandon passed away unexpectedly on January 19, 2026. Beloved son of Brandon Sharp and Jacquelyn Tabor, Brandon was born in Royal Oak on June 27, 2005.

Brandon will be deeply missed by his father and by his paternal grandparents, Stephen and Colleen Sharp; his uncles, Stephen (Nicole) Sharp and Colin (Jessy) Sharp; and in a special way by his cousins, Declan and Olive Sharp.

He is also lovingly remembered by his mother; his maternal grandmother, Linda Lang; his maternal grandfather, Gary (Denise) Tabor; his late uncle, Gary Tabor II; his aunts, Theresa Tabor Freeman and Melissa (Joe) Ortiz; and his cousins, Kayla, Korryn, Hannah, Caroline, Jackson, Eleanor, Ezekiel and Colton.

A graduate of Royal Oak schools, Brandon had many friends, several of whom he had been friends with since grade school. He enjoyed gaming with his friends, basketball and skateboarding. He had a strong creative spirit, loved fashion and had a great sense of style. He loved music, especially concerts and the 'merch line'. He enjoyed his job at Acuren and was proud of the work he did.

His passing has left a hole in all of our hearts. Our lives will never be the same.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.
