“ I remember all the conversations we had about God and how He mended us together as friends. Often times we did not see each other for years and would call or see each other. I It was if I had spoken to her everyday before. She was such an amazing woman and loved people so much! She will be missed. I am blessed because of her life and example. God gave me the reassurance that I will see her again in heaven.

To Matt and All of her family...you were so blessed to have her in your life. My prayers and love go out to all of of you.
