“ I often wonder if I'm the only one who is grieving your loss the hardest? You were my best friend, always. We finally got answers on Monday, my heart can finally try to understand, will it ever? No. Just know I loved you, I miss you and I'm still hurting like it was the first day..

“ Brenda was a neighbor and friend for several years and we all enjoyed her and we all benefited from her kindness, generosity, and thoughtfulness. A few years ago, my car broke down on I75 in Troy. It was below zero and it would take 5 hours for AAA to arrive. I was too far from the exit to try to walk in that cold. Our mutual friend Roni suggested that I call Brenda as she worked relatively close by. Brenda immediately left work to come to my rescue. Brenda insisted that I take her car for the rest of the day, while she finished her day at work, so I could take care of business while waiting for my car to be repaired. Her kindness will always be remembered and appreciated. We last visited with Brenda during a celebration that Roni hosted at her house during the Holidays. Much appreciation to Roni for keeping our neighborhood friendships connected by hosting and providing the venue for continued visits with Brenda and for being such a true and loyal friend.

“ I have many emotions in my heart, many thoughts and memories that I want to share about my Brenda...but none of these can I put into words that would have the impact or meaning that truly describe those emotions, thoughts or memories. But for everyone that knows Brenda, it's comforting to have the last time I saw her be a time of laughter. The whole is a bit lonlier now. Love Marlene.

“ Brenda i will deeply miss you. A good friend. We laughed a lot. Everyone loved your humor. Sincere, helpful and giving. I knew you 24 years. Our recent outings were movies. This picture is of us at 3D Zootopia. You are free of the pain from your body. Go...fly...run. I wish you so much peace. Love,Roni (Not sure picture will come out right.)

“ You had this saved.. So you must of really loved it! Lol :) We ended up at a no name bar where literally NO ONE was at!! We just sat and talked for hours, I think we may have closed the place. We did that quite a few times. I just can not even remember a time when you were not even there. I miss you so badly, the girls keep asking when you are going to feel better so they can see you... Even more heartbreaking to have to explain it all over again. How many memories can I leave before sweet becomes too many? My world has just shattered. Watch over our girls. I love you so, soo much.

“ I am so very sorry and sad to hear that my best friend has passed away. We would get together at least once a month or more and talk for hours. She will be missed. Again my deepest condolences to her family and friends. Until we meet again in heaven.

“ You believed in me when no one else did. You gave me hope when I had none. You built me up when I should of been the one building you up.. You knew what made me laugh, I knew what made you laugh. My girls, my babies.. LOVED Auntie.. Since Monday I lay down and cry myself to sleep and beg you to come to me in a dream and tell me you are ok? I'm glad we had last week, the laughs, the fun, the togetherness. I picked the picture of us getting our tattoo together.. "just breathe".. Seems fitting now. Just I'm the one remembering to just breathe when this all seems like a horrible nightmare! I love you more than you ever realized, I will always love you. My heart is shattered into pieces so small I don't even recognize yet, I hope you are resting easy now, you will always have a piece of my heart. I love you way more than of these words could ever describe.. So, for now.. tell bubbe I love you, too.. and until we meet again.. B, I love you. A
