

Brendan J. Tungol

May 14, 2001 - May 19, 2025

Brendan Joseph Tungol, age 24, of Clarkston, Michigan, passed away on May 19, 2025. He was born on May 14, 2001 in Southfield to Selwyn and Estrella "Lily" Tungol.

Brendan graduated from Clarkston High School in 2019, where he proudly played defense on the varsity hockey team. He enjoyed skateboarding, video games, working out, cooking, and caring for his two dogs, Ashley and Kilo. His most recent passion was training in amateur boxing.

Brendan was known for his humor, loyalty, kindness and a deep love and respect for his family and friends. He traveled often with his family, creating memories that will last a lifetime.

Beloved son of Selwyn and Estrella "Lily" Tungol. Dear brother of Sabrina (Ryan) Perry and Liselle (Niko) Tungol-Laput. Cherished grandson of Teresita and the late Juanito Estupigan and the late Jose and Maria Tungol. Loving uncle of Eliot Laput. Treasured cousin to his 25 cousins, and the most special "Baby Uncle" to his cousins' children.

Brendan had an unwavering faith in God, His relationship with the Lord gave him strength and comfort, and he carried that faith quietly but firmly throughout his life. He is now at peace in God's eternal care.

“ I remember having Brendan in a couple classes in high school, and I will never forget our shenanigans in senior year business management class. He was a very rambunctious but funny dude and words cannot express how sad I am to hear that he has passed. I send my best of condolences to his friends and family. Rest easy, Brendan <3

“ This is what I posted in Facebook:

It is very sad, break my heart, and really devastated that Brendan Estupigan Tungol, my esteemed nephew, had left us too early. He never had a chance to savor and enjoy his transcendent presence on Mother Earth. It was his destiny that the Lord recalled him to His kingdom at such a young age, 24 years, His choice, not ours for life is borrowed and given by Almighty God - unpredictable of the transformation from mortality to immortality.

Brendan was a quiet person. I always communicate with him whenever we meet in a social events - family birthdays and holidays where he lives. Last time I had a conversation with Brendan was during the 90th birthday celebration of his grandmother Teresita Estupigan. I went out of my way to say hello with him. He didn't say much and I noticed that something might be bothering him. How I wish he would have told me his problem.

When a young person's shadow disappears in the horizon for the last time, it pains me to the innermost citadel of my heart, especially when that person is close to me - Brendan is my grandnephew, the grandson of my sister Teresing Manzano-Estupigan.

I now have to accept reality that Brendan is no longer in our midst, but his memory will be with me as if he is still around, in my mind, can't touch him, but he won't be forgotten.

Lord, take Brendan with you now that he is in your kingdom, looking down on us. I pray for him that he is now resting in peace and living in the world of immortality.

“ Brendan was a constant presence in my home throughout high school. I enjoyed our conversations around the kitchen table. He had a kind spirit, a warm heart and a unique perspective no matter the subject matter. He was Eric's only friend who could get away with calling me by my first name and he had a smile that lit up the room. I am so sorry for your loss. Keeping Brendan and all who loved him in my prayers. Rest easy Brendan

Baby Uncle . . . I hope you are resting peacefully. Your absence is already felt profoundly, and you are deeply missed by all of us. Tito Sel, Tita Lily, SabSab (Ryan), and Liselle (Niko & Eliot), we are holding you close in our hearts, and our thoughts and prayers are with you as we navigate through this difficult time together. May you find comfort in the knowledge that Brendan is now in a better place, free from pain and surrounded by love.
