“ *Deanna, Chris, Brooke, Brian and Brendan,
There are no words to describe the depths of sorrow learning of the loss of your sweet boy Brent. The pain you all are going through is immeasurable. Brent will always be remembered as a smart, handsome, strong-willed young man with a caring heart and great personality.*

There is no understanding the loss of a child. Deanna, we have sat many, many times talking of our kids. Our hopes and dreams for them, the struggles...mother to mother. My thoughts and prayers are with you as you navigate through the tremendous heartache. Brooke...I love you kiddo. I am so, so sorry....my heart hurts for you all.

Please reach out if you need anything at all.

“ Dear Chris and Deanna,

We are so sorry for the loss of your son Brent. There are no words that can relieve the pain that you are feeling right now, but know that you are not alone as the prayers of all your friends and family surround you at this time.

We can only imagine the depths of anguish you must be feeling now. Losing a child is one of the most difficult experiences that you can face. I know the dreams and plans you had for Brent are just memories now, but I hope someday that those memories will offer you comfort. I only hope that our words can convey a small portion of sympathy to you and hope God gives you and your family the peace you need at this rough time. May he bless the departed soul.

We are thinking of you and will keep you in our prayers. Just know that we are and always will be there for you. You have our deepest condolences.
