“ Brian you will be missed by all who were fortunate to have met you. We became neighbors first and then friends which felt more like family. You were always ready to help anyone in need of help at moments notice. We will miss you very much and God Bless Kathy and your sons.

“ Brian will be missed by so many of us. He was always there to lend a helping hand when needed, always there to kick off the camping season, always there to host a card party and so many other things it's hard to list them all, If you needed someone Brian was always there. We will miss you my dear friend. Rest In Peace. Until we meet again. Dave & Deb.

“ Brian, you were defiantly one the good ones. They say you die twice, once when the breath leaves your body and again when the last person you know speaks your name. You were loved by so many your name will be spoken for decades to come. There are very few men you can respect these day, but I know for a fact you were respected as a son, brother, husband, father, uncle, grandfather and friend, that type of man is almost nonexistent. Being lucky enough to know your whole family I know you were cut from good cloth and you made you family proud until your last day. I married in to your family, but you always treated me like a blood relative. Our family events and the golf league will be a sadder place without you there. I hope when I crossover we get the chance to golf a few more rounds together.

Brian you are loved by everyone. You tried to make it easier for all of us...you were so brave. You were the youngest, but you taught all of us how to be a better person. Love you little brother

Kathy, My heart aches for you. I know how much you and Brian loved each other. You were truly soul mates. You have held things together through the toughest time of your life and took great care of your husband. I loved seeing you two together because a bright light shined over you both when you were together, the love was so apparent! I will always be here for you if you need a listening ear or anything else. love youxoxo Love Mike and Jackee
