“ My "uncle" Bruce was the most kind-hearted and lovely person. I fondly remember happy family Christmas gatherings at the home of the Richmonds, parents of Bruce's beautiful and sweet wife, Lois. My mother's brother Ed Smith was married to Lois' sister Dorcas. All of us kids me, my brother Bob, Sandy, Ross, and Robert would gather around and have such a warm wonderful holiday time. My most lingering memory of Bruce is his open, warm and happy nature with a ready smile. Robert...may God comfort you and your family. Your dad was a wonderful gentleman and I am always grateful for the times shared with you, your father and your mother.

“ Uncle Bruce will be missed by many. He was one of the most thoughtful, kind, and soft-spoken Men that I have known in my life. Rest in Peace, Uncle Bruce. No more worries. Love, John, Val and Corey

“ I have known Bruce since I was a child and he would occasionally be my "babysitter". He was a great friend of my parents and myself over all these years and had a knack for telling a great detailed story. He will be greatly missed, but I know that my folks will love being able to chat with him whenever they want. I so wish that I could have attended the funeral, but circumstances did not permit. My thoughts and prayers are with all of Bruce's family and friends especially Robert and his wife and daughter. - Mike Nidiffer

“ We will miss our Great Uncle Bruce so much. His thoughtfulness in bringing flowers and candy to us, at every visit, and his Christmas phone calls most of all. What a wonderfully kind and giving man he was to so many. Rest in peace, dear Uncle Bruce. : Love from Peggy, John, Matthew, Mary and Michael Staschke.
