“ Bruce, So many childhood memories throughout the years. The good times when all of us cousins would get together. Even though we lost contact years ago I have thought of you and the rest of the cousins often. May you rest in peace. John 11:25&26 says; Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?” Your long lost cousin Greg

“ Bruce I remember the last time I saw you, you rode your bike over to check something on the computer. Always polite and a gentlemen and never lied to or about anyone. A very good and kind man. You will be missed. You always made us laugh about something. At least you are not in pain anymore and you are with your beloved parents. RIP you deserve it.

“ Dear Bruce, Our sympathy is deep. We are so sorry for your passing, but your pain is gone. We met through our love for classic cars. You were such a kind & honest man to all. Our friendship too short; but we'll cherish the memories of many car shows, a few Saturday dinners & couple New Years Eves spent with you. We as everyone else will truly miss you. RIP Bruce

“ So very sorry to hear about Bruce. He took me to my first dance at St. Mary Magdalen in Melvindale when we were in the 6th grade. Bruce had an easy smile and was always kind. We lost touch after graduation in 1962. I have a great photo of Bruce in 2007 when we saw each other at a class reunion. He will be missed.

“ I have so many memories of us as kids at Grandma Galfanos house. When you moved to Allen Park it seemed so far from us in Detroit. We had many parties at your house with all the relatives. What good times those were. As we all got older and started living our lives, we didn't see much of each other. I'm sad to see that you lived so close to me. I tried over the years to find you but could never find a listing for you. Every year at the Downriver Cruise I would look for you. Rest in peace dear cousin.

“ Bruce you touched the lives of so many young children through sports. Your smile and fun loving personality will be missed by all of the those persons who lives that you touched. I too will miss you cousin. My life and others will go on and we will be happy again because a little part of you will be with us always. Dennis and Renee' Koehn
