“ I know that Bruce loved his children and family more than anything in this world. Bruce is no longer in the pain of this world; he is with our heavenly Father and Jesus now. I will miss Bruce until I get to see him again. I know in my heart that my dad Gary was one of the first people to hug Bruce. I will remember all of you in my prayers and thoughts. Love, Debbie Perks Herren

“ A beloved father, A beloved friend, Loved by many, Why did your life have to come to an end? Even though you're not with us, You're not gone, You're just looking down from above, In our hearts you still live on. I miss you so much, I still see your face, Please come back, Just one embrace. You're my angel, I still hear your voice in the room, R.I.P. Uncle Bruce, You left too soon. I miss you so much Uncle Bruce. I will never forget you. See you in heaven. I LOVE YOU.! -Brittney.

“ Hey Neighbor, We're all going to miss you buddy but you've been called home from the big guy. We shared a lot of good times and laughs together with family and friends that will never be forgotten. From the time we met you our friendship has grown to becoming a family. You always go that extra mile, especially for the kids. You will never be forgotten Bruce. The things you've done, shared and taught us make us better people. Your Friends, WSM

“ Hey cousin, you left us too soon. But you didn't go without giving us something in return. We're reminded of how there is no promise of a "long" life, just a "full" life. God wouldn't have called you away unless you had accomplished that which He put you among us to do. Your ongoing service and giving to others was your mission. From a different place, you will see and reap the rewards of your work. We'll miss ya but I'm sure your dad and grandparents and other relatives have been missing you too. Uncle Harold is probably looking for a horseshoe re-match! Enjoy the reunion. We'll catch up with you another day.
