“ I am sorry I didnt get to say farewell. Nobody told me you were even ill. This family of ours sure is messed up. You are my favorite Uncle. I can still hear your laughter and it has been years since I have seen you. I know you probably had a terrible childhood with the way your father was. I can only guess that's why you got sick. You did not derserve that Uncle Carl. God bless you. Rest in peace say hi to Grandma for me. I love you. Joey

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. My prayers go for him and you. It has to be close to 40 years since I last saw him, and even though it seems so long ago, life is but for a season. I know he is in a better place with the Lord.
