

Carmen Clotworthy

March 25, 1934 - November 12, 2018

Carmen Clotworthy (nee Phillips), age 84, passed away on November 12, 2018. Beloved wife of the late Paul. Loving mother of Dennis (Vickie) Clotworthy, Patricia (Jeff) Reid and Jeannette (Michael) Birchfield. Proud nana of Erik (Cherylin), Connie, Tara, Paul (Alana), Leah, and Ryan. Great nana of Nola. Dear sister of Harry, Violet (the late John), Joseph (Lourdes), Doris (Joseph) and Margaret (Charlie). She is also survived by many nieces and nephews. Carmen was predeceased by her siblings Robbie, Jimmy and Charlie. She came to the United States from Malta in March of 1963 and held very close to her Maltese heritage throughout the years, specially when it came to making pastizzi. Visitation will take place at the Wm. Sullivan and Son Funeral Home 8459 Hall Road (3 Blks E. of Van Dyke) Utica, Friday (November 16th) from 3pm-9pm, with a Rosary at 8:30 pm. She will lie instate at St. Lawrence Catholic Church 44633 Utica Rd. Utica, on Saturday at 12pm (noon) until the time of Mass at 12:30pm. Family request donations to be made to the Alzheimers Association or Henry Ford Hospice.

“ So many memories. Little did I know, the day Carmen came and knocked on our door, our lives would be blessed by such a beautiful soul. She was the loving mother figure I needed so much and a caring and sweet grandmother to both our boys. Matthew and Daniel loved her so much. I truly could not have managed without her in our lives. The love, support, and peace of mind she gave to our family could not have been found anywhere else. As a new wife and mother living far from all my family, I was so grateful that she shared herself and her family with us. She will live on in our hearts and all the wonderful memories we have of her. All our love goes out to her family and friends. Our deepest sympathy, Julie, Mike, Matthew and Daniel O'Connor
