“ I’ll never forget the first time I met Carol. We had just moved in. I was leaving for work and started my car but forgot something in the house and went back in to get it. When I got back to the car I had locked it. The only thing I could do was try to get a hanger to open the door. I went next-door and Carol came to the door. I asked if she had a hanger and explained the situation. She was so nice and asked me to come inside while she got the hanger. I stepped inside onto a white rug! I was horrified. Carol acted like nothing happened. That’s when I knew I had a true friend. She was the best neighbor anyone could ask for. Carol and Jim quickly became family. We made them Godparents to our daughter, Carrie and Jenny could often be found at their house just watching TV. Things changed when we moved after being neighbors for 39 years but I’ll never forget Carol. She was the best neighbor, friend and ‘family’ anyone could ask for.

I never met your mom, but I can say she raised a wonderful daughter. I will keep you and the family in my prayers and heart. 🙏
