“ God chose my Aunt Carol to stand by his side in heaven. She had a amazing full life . A Daughter, Sister, Aunt and Great Aunt no one could ask for better. From a Nun as Sister Sharon Ann, to Carol from Ford motor. She lived for ALL of her family always. She also bossed us like no one else's business and we really didn't mind either, Haha! She traveled around the globe and loved the sounds of casino bells ringing. There was no stopping this lady! May she fly high and rest in peace with our loved ones surrounding her. We love you always Aunt Carol. Xoxox

I had the pleasure of meeting Carol 4 years ago when I became her neighbor. She was always willing to help out and we we looked after one another and became great friends. She was a kind and considerate person. Always smiling and giving encouragement. She was a dear friend and Her death has left an empty space in my heart. She will be missed. She is with our Dear LORD NOW IN PARADISE With no more pain and suffering. God bless you my dear friend.
