“ Carol was my best friend for the last 25 years. Close in age, we shared many likes and dislikes. We had Friday night dinners together EVERY Friday unless holidays or illness got in the way. We took many trips together including traveling through Idaho, Yellowstone, Jackson Hole, Catalina and many other California sites. We talked most every day. I went through Carol's illness with her. She fought hard believe me. Carol made me a stronger person and I am devastated by her loss. She loved her partner of 41 years, Patrick, her family and her friends. She had a special place in her heart for animals. Even though I know she is now at peace, I will feel her loss for some time. I know she will be there to greet me in heaven when my time comes. She was special. Love, Judy Harden
