

Carol Sienkowski

March 7, 1960 - July 29, 2025

Carol Anne Sienkowski, 65, was welcomed into her eternal home with God on July 29, 2025. Carol was the beloved wife of Deacon Mark Sienkowski, and loving mother to Bryan (Lindzy) Sienkowski, Laura (Zach) Jakubik, and Justin Sienkowski. She was the proud grandmother of Peyton, Ethan, Jacob, and Caleb. Carol's memory will echo in the hearts of her sister, Joanne, and brothers, Daniel and John, as well as all else who were blessed to call her family or friend. She now rests reunited with her parents, Joseph and Molly Schultz, and son Aaron.

Carol was a humble, approachable woman who loved to sit and chat with anyone. She married the love of her life on October 20th, 1984 and celebrated 40 wonderful years together last fall. A devoted mother, she left her teaching career to focus on her greatest treasure—her children—making every birthday, holiday, and accomplishment special. She later embraced the role of loving grandmother with the same joy, presence, and care. Carol filled her home with warmth, decorating for every season and creating a place that always felt like home. She especially enjoyed baking, cherishing the tradition of Christmas cookies each year. A strong and faithful woman, she faced her long struggle with scleroderma with quiet dignity, grace, and unwavering hope. She was a loving, supportive wife whose deep faith sustained her and her husband as they walked together through his diaconate journey.

Carol's love for her family and faith was apparent to all who knew her.

“ Oh Carol (and Mark) we celebrated our young lives together through grade school, high school and beyond. I cherish those early memories and I am saddened that we have let our friendship wane because life sometimes works that way. This news has made me so sad. I will pray for your peaceful rest in heaven. Love to all of your family. God Bless You! Love and sincerest sympathies from your old friend Lee (Nowalski) Duszkiwicz.

“ Carol was an extremely wonderful person. She was always so cheerful and welcoming, no matter what problem her physical limitations presented. She was a great moral support for Mark. She insisted on doing her share of any chore or work. When Mark volunteered to drive MCREST guests to their destinations, there was Carol by his side to help chaperone the groups during the early morning trips. She was quite spunky. It was easy to appreciate such a warm and caring person. Definitely a lady of distinction.

“ I'm so sorry for your family's loss. Carol was such a sweet person. I went to high school with her and have many fun memories of her. Her birthday was a couple months before mine and she let me use her I.D. on a few occasions. She got me started watching Saturday Night Live too. May she rest in peace.
