“ I can honestly say that Carol Troup was a friend of mine whom I will miss greatly. When I was first hired on to Social Security and moved back to the Michigan area, Carol was one of the first employees that step up, and say hello and welcome.

One of her most beautiful attributes was her ability to really "see" the other person, to the point where one could laugh at oneself. She would make fun of my slight SC accent and when we did kid around, often got into an Irish Catholic brogue that was truly funny to see. She was ALL about the OTHER person. Besides that she was a heck of a cook.

Carol, your spirit and love of life is deep in our hearts. You left us way to soon ! Welcome Home !

Larry, my heart is with you.
