

Carole Sue Green

June 2, 1946 - August 3, 2025

Carole Sue Green, age 79, of Royal Oak, passed away on August 3, 2025. She was born on June 2, 1946, in Lansing, Michigan, to the late Burton and Doris (Waters) Stover. Carole grew up in Redford Township and went on to earn her bachelor's degree from Michigan State University, where her passion for history and education began to flourish.

In 1969, she began a dedicated teaching career at Lamphere High School, where she taught history until her retirement. She finished her 43-year teaching career at the Center for Advanced Studies and the Arts in Oak Park. She was respected by colleagues and beloved by generations of students whose lives she impacted.

An avid reader, Carole was a proud member of multiple book clubs. She was a loyal Michigan State Spartan and followed MSU athletics and Detroit sports teams with enthusiasm. She built deep and lasting friendships throughout her life.

Carole loved walking with her faithful canine companion, Franklin, who brought her daily joy and comfort.

She was the beloved mother of Amanda Green (Chuka Umunna) and Brady Green; proud grandmother of Marlo Umunna; and dear sister of Tom (Sally)

Stover and Nancy (Joe) Malloure. She was preceded in death by her brother, Dan Stover.

A memorial visitation will be held on Sunday, August 17, 2025, from 1:00-4:00 p.m. at Wm. Sullivan & Son Funeral Home, 705 W. 11 Mile Rd.(4 blocks east of Woodward), Royal Oak.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks guests to make a donation to Forgotten Harvest <https://www.forgottenharvest.org/donate/>.
