On December 29, 1956, Carolyn married the love of her life, William, in Southfield, Michigan. Together, they built a beautiful family. She was a devoted mother to Peter (Ruth), Chris (Laura), Julie (Chris) Benden, and Nancy (Andrew) Vizi. A proud grandmother to Sarah (Wesley) Howard, Nicholas (Caitlin), William, Ellen, Denise (William) Kingsley, Jamie Benden, and Joshua Benden, she also cherished her role as a great-grandmother to Emma, Elizabeth, and Hannah. Carolyn was also a dear sister-in-law to Lorelee.

Carolyn had a passion for travel and explored the world with great enthusiasm, visiting over 60 countries. She meticulously planned all of her family's vacations and wrote detailed journals of those trips. An avid reader, she completed over 450 books throughout her lifetime. She was also a dedicated educator, teaching math at St. Mary Catholic School in Royal Oak for 25 years. In her honor, the Carolyn Gayde Math Award was established at the school to recognize students' achievements. She was an alumna of St. Mary Academy in Monroe and later graduated from Marygrove College.

She passed a love of music on to her children and was a long-time member of the Fort Street Chorale, singing Handel's Messiah over 90 times. She loved to bake delicious cookies, pies, and cakes for her family and friends. She was an avid baseball fan, attending many Tiger games including playoffs and World Series.
