“ My love and prayers are with you all. Your mom was someone wonderful and I have such fond memories of times with her and your whole family. My husband lost both his parents in 2007 so I know this is a very hard time. I'm sorry I won't be able to come down but know you are all in my heart. Love, Margaret

“ I want to send all of you my sincere condolences in the loss of your dear loved one Carolyn. Lossing a loved one to death is at times unbearably painful. The Bible holds out a real hope for our loved ones that have fallen asleep in death. God is stronger than our enemy death and he promises to bring it to nothing. 1Corinthians 15:26 "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God promises that our loved ones have the hope of living again. Isaiah 26:19b "For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop in birth." What a comforting hope we have to see our loved ones again. Sincerely,

“ Jim, Lilly, & Family, We were saddened to learn of the loss of your mother, following the recent loss of your father... a lot for the family to absorb. You are in our thoughts and prayers and we know you will all be there for each other. May you find comfort in the lifetime of memories you share.
