“ Cary and I shared a passion for sports growing up together. You name it we played it. Baseball, football, basketball, hockey, golf. He was a competitive in your face tough SOB. I remember when we played football he would wear this jersey with the number 88 on it and I think it was my brother in law Bill who nicknamed him Boxcar because he would just as soon run over you as go around. We all would laugh. But for a short while we played racquet ball and I would say I got the best of him most of the time. One morning we were going in to play and I said loser buys breakfast. I pushed the wrong button there. He played like a man possessed. Cary whipped me like a rented mule that day and we always had a good laugh on that one. Just one of many great times and proud to call you friend. Love you Cary.
