“ Mamma Alvaro was always a living-icon throughout my entire life. Her cautious wisdoms guided me many times back onto a straight & narrow path.

I loved and respected her dearly and as she would always say to me...

"Ree-kee, I love-a you like-a my son."

Oh Lord... what an honor and a sincere showing of love that she so graciously gave unto me.

An honor that she very-very rarely gifted to anyone outside her immediate family.

Bless you mamma... and rest now in the arms of our papa John, brother Jerry and of course... our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ... in the Kingdom of God.
