“ Things I remember about Pete--that sassy little pixie of a lady with the quick wit and joy-filled laugh...enjoying backyard barbecues back in the 60's that usually ended with dancing in the garage to a record player...a backyard pool where Pete dictated "grown-up time" and as kids we had to get out and let the ladies float. LOL Things Pete taught me--that red nail polish was the only way to go...that skiing may not be the sport for me, actually her words were "You're gonna kill yourself!" LOL but it was definitely the sport for my brother Jack--and she taught him well...that friendships last a lifetime. Things I will miss about Pete...everything. Rest easy, Pete, and when you get to heaven, fire up the record player and take a spin around the dance floor with Ray...you'll probably bump into Jack & Joan and Billy & Aileen. I guess it's true--friendships do last a lifetime...and beyond. A big hug to all of the Fisher clan, especially Michele, Raelene and Annette. I'll be thinking of all of you. Much love, Terri One of the "Pippin Kids"

“ May God bless my Auntie Pete and may she rest in peace. When I think of her I see her laughing and joking, always fun. Melissa when you say she could light up a room you are so right, and she was the brightest star in it. Raylene, Michelle, Annette and children, know we are thinking of you. Theresa and Tommy

“ Very sorry for your loss. John 5:28,29 holds out the hope of a resurrection to those who have fallen asleep in death, and Isaiah 25:8 says our loving Heavenly Father will soon swallow up death forever and will wipe the tears from all faces. I hope this brings you a measure of comfort at this time.

“ My grandma was like no other. She could light up a room when she walked in. Its so hard to believe you are gone. You have taught me so much thought the years. Her grace, her strength, her sass, her style, and her love. She was an amazing women. At least she left behind 3 amazing women her daughters. Each one of them have a different part of you that will live on though them. You are finally with grandpa. Love and miss you both.
