“ Jane and I have very fond memories of a family gathering we had here at our home in Novi many years ago. Aunt Catherine was there as were most of her children or a least half of them, along with their children, Uncle Jack & Aunt Ruth, Aunt Eilene and her side of the clan, and Aunt Shirlie and most, if not all, of her clan. I believe, if my memory serves me soundly, some of the Paiges were also in attendance. It can be said, I think, with a modicum of accuracy that a fine time was had by all. I believe also that it can be said we all feel the loss of Aunt Catherine. She will always occupy a special place in our hearts.
