“ Hello, my name is Lyndsey. Even though we do not know each other I'd like to express my condolences for your loss. In the Bible, there are many comforting scriptures regarding suffering and death. One of my favorite scriptures is at Revelation 21:4, where it says- "HeGod will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be no anymore. The former things have passed away." In the near future, God will relieve all pain, suffering, mourning and he will wipe death away forever! A world without sickness, death, and pain may be hard to imagine, but when God promises something, it always comes true. Another comforting scripture is in the Bible at Psalm 46:1-" God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." So whenever we feel sad or discouraged, we can pray to God, tell him how we feel, and ask him to give us strength and help us. God will always be there for us. I hope your family is doing okay, and I hope these scriptures will offer some comfort and encouragement. Take Care, Lyndsey D.
